Marketing programs with Nearshores Americas

Belatrix began to leverage Nearshore Americas' marketing programs in 2012. Initially they began running a ROS banner ad for the entire year and have continued running that banner through 2013 for a 24-month commitment. In addition, Belatrix is a recurring sponsor of Nearshore Americas' premiere event Nearshore Nexus (www.nearshorenexus.com). Most recently in 2013, Belatrix contracted with Nearshore Americas Custom Content Team to produce an eReport. This eReport is a digital marketing asset for Belatrix which highlights the Belatrix product and services offerings in a dynamic, digital magazine complete with embedded video and interactive features. Nearshore Americas has created many of these eReports for its client base which have been met with much success.

“ We love working with Nearshore Americas because they really work as true partner that combined with the fact that by advertising on their website we support one of the leading organizations that are helping grow our business and our region. ”

Alex Robbio - Belatrix

“ I think that for us it's really important to define the category of Nearshore, so without understanding, without having that message go to the market about the value of Nearshore, then it's a lot harder for individual firms to brand themselves and articulate their value proposition as Nearshore if there isn't this really strong understanding of what Nearshore is ”
